

Holt County Sentinel.

Oregon, Missouri.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 25, 1867.

Contributions.

Especially attention is directed to our Jefferson City correspondence. We are enabled to catch an intelligent view of the doings of our representatives, which it is not so easy to do from the telegraphic reports.

We shall present next week an original story, written for this paper, entitled "Out of the Body."

Bounty for the M. S. M.

We notice that there has been introduced into the Legislature by Mr. Bonham, an act providing for the payment of bounties to the Missouri State Militia, by the State, out of the funds appropriated by the United States, (Act of April 17, 1866) "to reimburse the State of Missouri for moneys expended in enrolling, equipping, and provisioning militia forces to aid in suppressing the rebellion." The bill was read first time.

Too Late.

THE St. Joseph Union is out in a heavy editorial urging the speedy completion of the Platte Country Railroad. We think it nearly time that St. Joseph and St. Louis were awake to the importance, to them, of finishing this needed link of railroad connection. Chicago has pushed a railroad across the State of Iowa since the Platte Country enterprise was set on foot. The Platte Country has been pushed twelve miles above St. Joseph! But this stirring up of the matter looks to us as if it had come just a little late, like the sportsman discharging his piece after the game has flown. The connection between Chicago and Council Bluffs, we learn, now complete. It is needless to assert, what all have foreseen, that with this connection we have lost an immense trade and travel from the plains which would have come to us through the Pacific railroad, had the Platte Country Railroad been completed last year, which can never be recovered.

Resolutions.

At a meeting of the Oregon Lodge of Good Templars, No. 140, held on the night of January 22d, 1867, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the County Court of Holt county is most respectfully requested by the Lodge to refuse to grant any more license to keep dram shops in the city of Oregon.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions signed by the Worthy Chief and by all the other officers and members of the Lodge, be presented to the County Court.

Resolved, That the Worthy Chief be requested to present said resolutions to said Court, at its next session.

THE February Number of Demorest, now before us, is, par excellence, the best of the monthlies. Its Steel engravings of Fashions give us the latest modes, exquisitely colored. A full-page picture, printed in colors, of the Ascent of the Matterhorn is unapproachable, and out-distances all rivalry in this branch, Demorest being the only publisher with the enterprise to risk a new process which must soon replace all others. Full-size patterns, and patterns for embroidery in profusion. In music, a bewitching Waltz-Song, "The Snow-Flake." Five Scenes of Lumbering in America, The Last Game, and thirty other illustrations. Poems, Tales, and Miscellany, too extensive to enumerate here. It must be examined to believe so much can be had for $3.00 a year. Purchase a copy or subscribe.

We have heard of the election of the following Senators, in different States: Hon. C. D. Drake, in Missouri; Lyman Trumbull, in Illinois; Simon Cameron, in Pennsylvania; Roscoe Conkling, in New York; and Gov. Morton, in Indiana—all Republicans, and for terms of six years each.

FROM the Rockport Journal we learn that an extra session of the Circuit Court has been ordered by Judge Wm. Haven, to commence at that place on the 28th, inst., to investigate the case of Geo. F. Thornton, now confined in the Holt county jail, for horse stealing.

FROM JEFFERSON-CITY.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 14th, 1867.
Correspondence of THE SENTINEL.

A few lines from one whose interests are in common with the loyal people of Holt, induces me to pen you this. The great whirlpool of political excitement wherein the Senatorial contest grew warm, and warmer, as the aspirants neared the hour of their fate, is over, and as you are doubtless advised ere this, Chas. D. Drake is the chosen one—worthy, thrice worthy to represent freed Missouri in the Senate Chambers of the Nation.

As yet, there has been but little business consummated on general legislative questions. Some amendments to the Constitution have been offered. The Anti-Drake men would seem to favor certain Constitutional amendments, which perhaps might best be accounted for when we remember that "His Excellency," was an Anti-Constitution man.

A. J. Harlan, Speaker of the House, from Andrew, and Col. D. Bonham, President of the Senate, from Andrew, are two of the ruling spirits in the Assembly. Thus whilst the North West is a unit in Radicalism, she is no longer ignored, but stands first and foremost in the Legislative Halls of the State.

It is quite probable the Session will be unavoidably prolonged, as there are some fifteen seats contested in the House, and three in the Senate, each case requiring from one to three days for defense. One Senator of Southern Chivalry tenets was ousted after a long and laborious investigation, and another is upon the eve of following the precedent. It is a good precedent, and one that Conservatism should remember when rebellion joins it at the ballot box.

There is much railroad talk among the lobby members, and but little among the members of the Assembly; but it is evident that there will be several important measures offered during the session. The companies throughout the State are amply represented in the lobbies of the two Houses.

A called session for next winter is talked of among the most influential members; and if there is a called session there will be no amendments to the Constitution submitted during the present term. It will depend much upon certain decisions coming from the Supreme Court.

A concurrent resolution has been offered favoring the impeachment of Judges King, Tutt, and Buckhart, for not adhering to justice, and for granting decrees to rebels who have never been in the Union army. Such men should be impeached along with Andrew Johnson. Yours respectfully.

The United States Senator.

The Hon. Charles D. Drake was yesterday elected United States Senator for six years from the 4th of March next. Both Houses voted separately, as provided for in the law passed at the last session of Congress, and each House gave an overwhelming majority for Mr. Drake. The vote was as follows:

SENATE:
C. D. Drake.....	23
F. P. Blair.....	2
Nathaniel Holmes.....	2
HOUSE:
C. D. Drake.....	86
F. P. Blair.....	83
B. F. Lora.....	3
H. M. Worley.....	3
J. S. Phelps.....	1

In both Houses Mr. Drake received 109 votes, and General Blair, 39.—[State Times, 16th.]

THE LEXINGTON PRISONERS.—Dr. Cooley and others arrested in Lexington by United States Marshal Wallace, under the Civil Rights Bill, had a hearing before Judge Kregel on Monday. Messrs. Busick and Waters appeared for the defense, and in the absence of all evidence against the prisoners moved for their discharge. Judge Kregel postponed the cases until next Monday, at which time Hon. Bennet Pike, United States District Attorney, will be present. General Montgomery's case will come up on the same day.—[State Times, 16th.]

THE New York Tribune says: "Stephens has retired altogether from the Fenian ranks, alleging that the organization is too weak to attempt a conflict with England. The Centers held a meeting Saturday night to consider what action was necessary. A statement was made that Stephens received $12,000 since his arrival in this country, and that but little remains in the treasury; that none of the arms presented to the organization were sent to Ireland."

Connubial Infelicity.

A case of matrimonial unhappiness and connubial faithlessness came under the notice of Recorder Hawley, yesterday morning. On the upper end of Frederick Avenue there lives an honest German, who has respect of his neighbors, and by all is reckoned a good man and kind, affectionate husband. With such men it is always to be hoped that family affairs would prove pleasant and agreeable; but with this old man it is otherwise. His "frau" has formed the acquaintance of and conceived a liking for a younger Teuton, of more manly proportions and stronger passions than her liege lord. The evidence before the Recorder was that the young man aforesaid visited the old man's domicile and paid more attentions to the lady in question than were agreeable to her legal bedfellow—in fact his attention proceeded to the extent of kissing and embracing her in the presence of her husband. He was not only ordered to desist from these love like demonstrations, but directed to absent himself forever from the roof which then sheltered him, but this he refused. The fair but false frau had entreated him to stay, and he found it more agreeable to obey her than the man of the house. His disobedience, in the opinion of the Recorder, was "conduct calculated to provoke a breach of the peace," and he accordingly fined him $25 and costs. We don't know that we are particularly destructive in our temperament, but if a man larger than our diminutive self were to ingratiate himself into favor with our better half, and deport himself as the witness testified this young man did, we hardly think he would ever be brought into a police court without he came in feet first.—[St. Joseph Union, 23d.]

Gen. Grant on the Suffrage Veto.

A Washington correspondent of the New York Times sends the following to his paper, under date of January 8:

"In conversation with General Grant to-day, relative to his reported approval of the President's veto of the District suffrage bill, I learn the following facts: He was present at the Cabinet meeting by request, without previous knowledge of the subject that would come up for deliberation. In the discussion on the bill, Gen. Grant took no part; and after all were through, and he had risen from his seat to depart, the President asked him if there would be any impropriety in asking his views on the subject. General Grant replied, very briefly, that the objection which had been urged by one member of the Cabinet, that it was unconstitutional because it disfranchised rebels without trial, was, in his estimation the best part of the bill, and exhibited the most wisdom. With reference to conferring the right of suffrage upon the colored people of this District, he remarked that he always thought it inconsistent, on the part of Congress, to enforce this right here while they refused to grant it to the same class in their own States. Either members of Congress should extend this privilege at home, or wait until the people here ask for it. This was the extent of his expression upon the subject. Upon the arguments and principles involved in the message he uttered no opinion whatever."

THE FENIAN HEAD CENTER.—The New York reporters have been hunting up the vanished Head Center Stephens. They have found that immediately after Stephens left his first place of concealment he removed to a house in East Sixteenth street; but apprehending that he might be made the object of popular indignation, he promptly left his rooms and took others in East Thirteenth street. From there he removed to a house in East Eleventh street, where he is still stopping. On calling at the house, the lady in charge stated he was out, and positively refused to permit the reporters to wait till his return. On Sunday evening a prominent member of the Fenian Brotherhood had a lengthy interview with the late Head Center. During the conversation Stephens stated that he was in dread of the Irish people in this city, and that he would sooner give himself up to the British Government, and let them hang him.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.

There is clearly something mysterious, if nothing else, about the operations of the Atlantic Telegraph Company. Some inquisitive individual has just published the result of his observations, and they are rather startling to the shareholders, of which he is one. He states, as an absolute fact, that the business of the line is so small that only one of the two cables is ever worked, and that only for a short time during each day; and this, too, after the company found it necessary, in order to obtain any business, to reduce their prices exactly one-half.

THE Salt Lake Vedette of the third instant, has an account of the murder of a party of nine prospectors in southern Utah. They were from Pahrana-gat, and were killed east of that place, about fifty miles from Calville. The Indians were supposed to be Navajoes.

New Paper in St. Louis.

We learn that a movement is on foot to establish another Radical paper in St. Louis, with Hon. Charles A. Dana at its head as editor-in-chief. Such an enterprise could not be otherwise than successful. For an earnest, able, and reliable Radical paper no finer field could be asked. The Radical people and the Radical press of Missouri would hail it with joy as the one thing which they have longed needed and long desired. Certainly a great State like this, which rolls up its Radical majority of twenty thousand, should have at its Commercial Metropolis an organ every way and at all times trustworthy, and which should not be ruled by erratic minds, whose privately expressed opinions, politically, do not agree with their published editorials. We hope the movement will be successful and that at an early day the right kind of a paper will be started.—[Mexico Messenger.]

The Atchison Champion says:

The late massacre by the Indians of ninety-four United States soldiers near Fort Phil. Kearney is confirmed. Col. H. B. Carrington, commandant at that post, telegraphs that they were attacked near the Fort by 3,000 Indians, killing Lieut. Colonel Fetterman, Capt. F. H. Brown, Lieut. Grammond and ninety-one privates. The bodies, when recovered, were found horribly mutilated. It is not stated to what companies they belonged, but it is supposed they were new recruits recently sent west.

IMMIGRATION.—We notice many strangers on our streets, and we learn that strangers are looking in upon our headquarters. These are the advance guards of the great army of immigrants who will sweep into the State this year, a portion of whom will settle in our midst. We welcome all who desire to come; we have room, rich soil, good and healthy climate, and plenty of room to grow rich and prosperous. Come on!—[Chillicothe Spectator.]

The bill regulating the tenure of office, has passed the U. S. Senate by a more than two-thirds vote. It will undoubtedly pass the House by a sufficient majority to make it a law. It provides that the term of all officers who have been appointed by the President or heads of departments, and whose salary exceeds $1,500 since July, 1866, shall expire in 3) days after the passage of the bill.—[Herald.]

Some two weeks ago, the residents of Savannah, Andrew county, resolved by vote, to refuse all license for dram shop or saloon—so at least we are informed by a young man of this city who visited the place on Friday last, and could not even obtain a glass of malt liquor within its corporate limits.—[St. Joseph Herald, 20th.]

A Washington dispatch of the 3d says:

The joint resolution submitted to the House to-day, provides for four Territorial governments for the late State of Texas, to be called Brazoria, Brazos, Sabine, and Lincoln, to be organized on the principles of other Territories; the public lands of the State to be declared the property of the United States.

RETURNS received from twenty-three Conferences of the Southern Methodist Church, show that the proposition of the changed name is defeated; and also indicate the probable defeat of the lay delegate proposition.

The next English House of Commons will contain two members likely to be regarded as curiosities.—Mr. Fawcett, who is blind, and Mr. Kavanagh, a tory recently elected from Wexford county, Ireland, who is without arms or legs.

THE French forces are getting ready to embark from Mexico, and the indications now are that the most pacific relations between this country and France in regard to Mexico will exist.

THE Missouri Legislature stand about as follows: Conservatives, 40; Democrats, 40; Radicals, 93. The Senate has eight Conservatives to twenty-six Radicals.

THE WAY THEY ACT.—Bad digestion breeds disease; good digestion prevents disease and also cures it. Dr. Henry's World's Tonic and Blood Purifier and Plant Pills make the digestive organs healthy, and take out from the bowels and blood bad and poisonous materials and impure humors, over which, in fact, they have a direct power—a single dose of them throwing off a serious attack of sickness. These are facts. All druggists keep them.
